1 126 SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all letters,
 2 packets, newspapers, periodicals, public documents, and books
 3 printed by order of either house of Congress, and all other 4 mailable matter, shall be prepaid by postage stamps or stamped 5 envelopes before their delivery at any post office for transmis-
 6 sion in the mails ; and all letters, packets, and other mailable 7 matter, whether printed or written, directed to the President or 8 Vice President of the United States, or to any member of 9 either house of Congress, or to the Secretary of the Senate 10 or Clerk of the House of Representatives, shall be prepaid at 11 the mailing office.

1 127 SEC 4. And be it further enacted, That all letters,
 2 packets, and mailable matter sent from or directed to any of the 3 executive departments, bureaus, or public offices or officers, 4 civil or military, at the seat of the general government, except 5 the Post Office Department and the office of the Auditor of 6 the Treasury for the Post Office Department, shall be prepaid 7 by postage stamps or stamped envelopes before delivery at the 8 mailing office.

1 128 SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be
 2 the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to pay or refund
 3 quarterly, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise
 4 appropriated, to each of the executive departments, bureaus,
 5 and offices at the seat of government, except the Post Office
 6 Department and the office of the Auditor for said department,

7 such amounts as the proper accounting officers of the treasury
8 shall audit and allow as having been expended for the purchase 9 of postage stamps and stamped envelopes, used or to be used 10 for the prepayment of the postage on letters, packets, and mail-11 able matter sent from their respective offices on official business; 12 and if the contingent fund of any executive department, 13 bureau, or office, with the exceptions aforesaid, shall be in-14 sufficient, after defraying other expenses, to purchase the post-15 age stamps required for the use of such department, then, and 16 not otherwise, the Secretary of the Treasury may, upon the 17 requisition of the chief officer thereof, advance such sum as 18 shall not exceed the estimated amount of the postages to be 19 paid by such office in any one quarter, to be accounted for as 20 other public moneys: Provided, however, That the postage on 21 all letters and packages from the President and Vice President
22 of the United States shall be paid by the Department of State
23 and the Secretary of the Senate, respectively: And provided, 24 further, That officers, civil and military, may have allowed to 25 them, in the settlement of their accounts by the proper account-26 ing officers of the government, the postages paid by them on 27 letters and packets sent by them in the mails exclusively on 28 official business; and that so much of the twelfth section of 29 the "Act to establish certain post routes, and for other pur-30 poses," approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, 31 as appropriates two hundred thousand dollars each year for the 32 service therein mentioned, be, and the same is hereby, repealed ; 33 and that the eighth section of the “Act to reduce and modify 34 the rates of postage in the United States, and for other pur-35 poses,” approved March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, 36 be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

1 129 SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the eighteenth 2 section of the “Act to reduce the rates of postage,” and so forth, 3 approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-five, shall 4 be so construed as to prohibit the Postmaster General from 5 making contracts for the transportation of the mail with any 6 view to the transportation of passengers, and to restrict him 7 in making such contracts to the acceptance of such bids only as 8 shall provide for the conveyance of the mails.

1 130 SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That so much of the 2 first section of the act of August thirtieth, eighteen hundred 3 and fifty-two, entitled an “An act to amend the act entitled 4 ‘An act to reduce and modify the rates of postage in the United 5 States, and for other purposes,’ ” passed March third, eighteen 6 hundred and fifty-one, as allows a deduction of fifty per 7 centum from the rates of postage established by said act on 8 newspapers and periodicals, paid quarterly or yearly, in ad-
 9 vance, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

1 131 SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That from and after
 2 the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-

3 nine, in lieu of the rates of postage now established by law,
 4 there shall be charged the following rates, to wit :

5 For every single letter, in manuscript, or paper of any 6 kind, in which information shall be asked for or communicated 7 in writing, or by marks or signs, conveyed in the mail for any 8 distance between places in the United States not exceeding 9 three thousand miles, five cents, and for any distance over 10 three thousand miles, ten cents ; and for a double letter there 11 shall be charged double these rates ; and for a treble letter 12 treble these rates ; and every letter or parcel not exceeding half 13 an ounce in weight shall be deemed a single letter ; and every 14 additional weight of half an ounce, or additional weight of less 15 than half an ounce, shall be charged with an additional single 16 rate of postage.

17 And there shall be charged for letters conveyed in the 18 mail, wholly or in part by sea, and to or from a foreign 19 country, without regard to distance, ten cents for each half 20 ounce in weight, or additional weight of less than half an 21 ounce, excepting, however, all cases in which such postage had 22 been or shall be adjusted at different rates by postal treaty or 23 convention already concluded or hereafter to be made.

24 And every letter or packet brought into the United States,
 25 or carried from one port therein to another in any private ship 26 or vessel, shall be charged with five cents, if delivered at the 27 post office where the same shall arrive ; and if destined to be

28 conveyed thence by post to any place, two cents shall be added 29 to the ordinary rates of postage.

30 All drop letters, or letters placed in any post office not 31 for transmission, but for delivery only, shall be charged with 32 postage at the rate of one cent each, to be prepaid by postage
 33 stamps, and accounted for as other letter postages.

34 And all letters which shall hereafter be advertised as 35 remaining over, or uncalled for, in any post office shall be 36 charged with one cent each in addition to the regular postage, 37 to be accounted for as postages now are.

38 And upon all letters passing through or in the mails of 39 the United States, excepting such as are to or from a foreign 40 country, and letters and packages to and from any ex-Presi- 41 dent of the United States, or any person or persons to whom 42 the franking privilege has been granted by name, and letters
 43 and packages to and from the officers of the Post Office
 44 Department and of the Auditor's Office of the Post Office
 45 Department, exclusively on official business, the rates of postage 46 hereby established shall be prepaid by postage stamps, or 47 stamped envelopes, or in money, if the Postmaster General 48 shall so direct.

1 132 SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That from and after
 2 the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-
 3 nine, the postage upon all printed matter passing through the 4 mail of the United States, instead of the rates now charged,

5 shall be as follows, to wit : Each newspaper, periodical, un-6 sealed circular, or other article of printed matter, not exceed-7 ing three ounces in weight, shall be sent to any part of the 8 United States for one cent, and for every additional ounce or 9 fraction of an ounce one cent additional shall be charged ; and 10 the postage upon newspapers and periodicals shall be paid
11 quarterly in advance, either at the post office where the same 12 are delivered, or at the office where they are mailed ; and 13 evidence of such payment shall be furnished quarterly to the 14 office of delivery in such manner as the Postmaster General 15 may, by general regulations, prescribe. Newspapers and 16 periodicals not weighing over one ounce and a half, when cir-
17 culated in the State where published, shall be charged one-half 18 the rates above mentioned : Provided, That small newspapers
19 and periodicals published monthly, or oftener, and pamphlets 20 containing not more than sixteen octavo pages each, when sent 21 in single packages, weighing at least eight ounces, to one ad-22 dress, and prepaid by affixing postage stamps thereto, shall be 23 charged only half a cent for each ounce or fraction of an ounce, 24 notwithstanding the postage calculated on each separate article 25 of such package would exceed that rate : And provided, fur-26 ther, That the publishers of weekly newspapers may send to 27 each actual subscriber within the county where their papers are 28 printed and published one copy thereof free of postage, and 29 that nothing herein contained shall prevent the free exchange

30 of newspapers between the publishers thereof, as authorized by 31 the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-five, "To reduce into 32 one the several acts establishing and regulating the Post Office 33 Department." The postage on all transient printed matter 34 shall be prepaid by postage stamps; and it shall be the duty
 35 of each postmaster to render quarterly to the Post Office De-36 partment, with his regular quarterly returns of postages, and 37 in such form as the Postmaster General shall prescribe, a 38 particular account of all postage by him collected or received 39 upon newspapers, periodicals, and other printed matter, regular 40 or transient, received at or sent from his office; and it shall be 41 the further duty of each postmaster at whose office one or more 42 letter-carriers are employed to render quarterly, as aforesaid, 43 a particular account of all moneys received from and paid to 44 each letter-carrier during the quarter.

1 133 SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That in place of the 2 compensation now allowed deputy postmasters, the Postmaster
 3 General be, and he is hereby, authorized to allow them com-
 4 missions at not exceeding the following rates, on the letter 5 postage collected at their respective offices in each quarter of 6 the year, and in due proportion for any period less than a 7 quarter, viz:

8 On any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, forty per 9 centum; but any postmaster, at whose office the mail is to 10 arrive regularly between the hours of nine o'clock at night and 11 five o'clock in the morning, may be allowed fifty per centum on 12 the first hundred dollars.

13 On any sum over and above one hundred dollars, and not 14 exceeding four hundred dollars, thirty-three and one-third per 15 centum.

16 On any sum over and above four hundred dollars, but not 17 exceeding twenty-four hundred dollars, thirty per centum.

18 On any sum over and above the first two thousand four 19 hundred dollars, twelve and a half per centum.

20 On the amount of postage on letters and packages
 21 received at a distributing office for distribution, not exceeding 22 ten per centum.

23 And on the moneys arising from the postage on newspapers, 24 periodicals, pamphlets, and other printed matter, the Postmaster
 25 General may allow a commission of not exceeding fifty per 26 centum.

27 Each postmaster who shall be required to keep a register
 28 of the arrival and departure of the mails shall be allowed ten 29 cents for each monthly return which he makes to the Postmaster 30 General; and each postmaster may be allowed two mills for 31 the delivery from his office, to an actual subscriber, of each 32 weekly newspaper entitled to go free in the mails, except 33 exchange papers. And no other or further allowances what- 34 ever shall be made to any postmaster, except from the rents of 35 boxes or pigeon holes, as now authorized by law; and the

36 commissions and allowances authorized by this act shall be 37 subject to the provisions of the forty-first section of the act 38 entitled “ An act to reduce into one the several acts establishing 39 and regulating the Post Office Department, approved March
 40 third, eighteen hundred and twenty-five;” and that the fourth 41 section of the act approved July twenty-seventh, eighteen hun-42 dred and fifty-four, entitled “ An act making provision for the 43 postal service in the State of California and in the Territories 44 of Oregon and Washington,” be, and the same is hereby, 45 repealed.

1 134 SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this act shall 2 go into effect on and after the first day of July, eighteen hun-
 3 dred and fifty-nine.

1 135 Amend the title by adding at the end thereof, and for 2 other purposes.

Attest:

ASBURY DICKINS, Secretary.
